
Dr. Emese Bücheler (née. Szilágyi), LL.M.EUR.

Member of the Munich Bar Association

E emese.buecheler@weitnauer.net
T +49 89 38 39 95-0

Dr. Emese Bücheler advises national and international clients in IP-related matters and cross-border projects between Hungary and Germany. She has extensive experience in drafting international and Hungarian concert contracts and other copyright license agreements.

Practice Area

- Intellectual Property
- Cross-border projects between Hungary and Germany
- International and Hungarian concert and other copyright license agreements

Languages

- Hungarian (native language)
- German
- English

Memberships

- Munich Bar Association
- Budapest Bar Association
- Friends and Alumni of the Max Planck Institute for Intellectual Property and Competition Law.
- Council of Copyright Experts – Hungary

Education and Experience

- Legal studies at Eötvös Lóránd University Faculty of Law, Budapest
- Education on Auditor – Chamber of Hungarian Auditors, Budapest, Admission as a Hungarian Auditor since 2003
- Postgradual Studies in European and International Business Law (LL.M. Eur.) – Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich.
- Phd – Max Planck Institute for Intellectual Property, Competition- and Tax Law, Munich; Doctoral thesis on the neighboring rights of publishers
- Nörr Stiefenhofer Lutz, Munich, research associate
- Since 2009 with Weitnauer