
Benedikt Mahr, LL.M. Tax

Rechtsanwalt, Tax Advisor, Partner

E benedikt.mahr@weitnauer.net
T +49 89 38 39 95-0

Benedikt Mahr is leading the firm's tax practice and experienced in Venture Capital, Private Equity and M&A.

He advises entrepreneurs, companies and investors from the areas of InsurTech, FinTech and MedTech regarding all legal questions of tax and corporate law (especially with respect to financing rounds, ESOP, convertible loans, transaction structure, participation in funds, due diligence and share deals).

Education and Experience

- Undergraduate studies of law at the University of Passau (1st legal state exam in 2009)
- Clerkship at the High Court of Munich (2nd legal state exam and bar admission in 2011)
- Attorney at law at a boutique law firm with a focus on transactions in Private Equity, Venture Capital and M&A in Munich and London
- Postgraduate studies at Northwestern University and Kellogg School of Management, Chicago (LL.M. Tax in 2014)
- Legal Counsel and business development manager at finance technology companies in the USA (Silicon Valley) and in Germany (Berlin)
- Since 2016 Attorney at law at Weitnauer in Munich
- Admission as tax advisor in 2019 (state exam)
- Since 2019 Partner at Weitnauer

Practice Areas

- Tax Law
- Corporate Law
- Venture Capital, Private Equity
- Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A)

Languages

- German (native language)
- English
- Italian

Memberships

- Munich Bar and Tax Advisors' Association
- German-Italian Lawyers' Association
- Northwestern Alumni Association
- International Fiscal Association